Scioto Lodge #6 Annual Fish Fry

Scioto Lodge #6 held its annual Fish Fry in Yoctangee Park on Friday June 7th to raise monies for their Scholarship presentations. About $3,400 was raised which will allow us to distribute another three $1,000 Masonic scholarships in 2025.

This is the most labor intensive project we do to raise money as it takes so many members to help make all the stations work over the course of a 12 hour or more day. That does not include set up the day prior and clean up the day after. Thanks to all the members and their wives that showed up to work to make this a successful and prosperous event.

Scioto Lodge #6 Scholarship Awards Night and Banquet

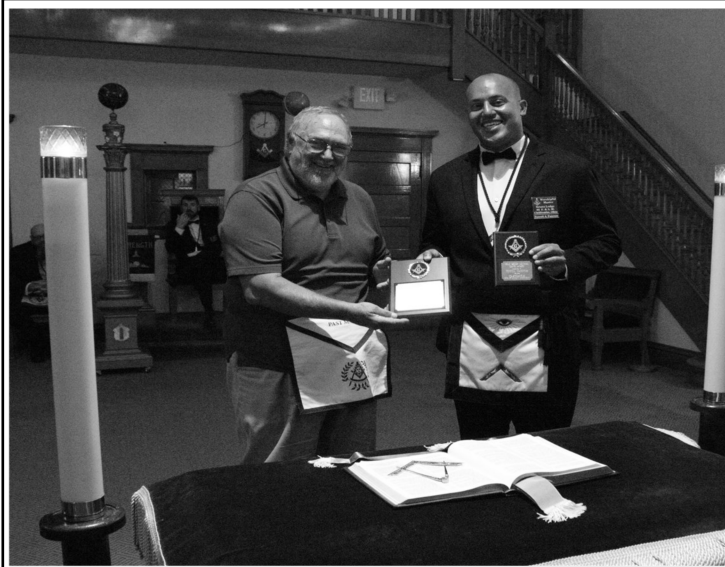

Scholarship recipients and their families were invited to attend a dinner on June 20th in the small dining room prior to our last stated meeting before going dark for the summer.

Each was asked to introduce their family that were present and give a small talk on their plans for college and anything else they would like us to know about them.

They were presented a small gift bag filled with items that would be useful to a student moving into a dorm room in college and for their future studies.

It was mentioned how impressive it is to review the scholarship applications and see all of the scholastic and personal achievements they have reached.

7th Masonic District Awards

The 7th Masonic District passed out awards to Lodges and Worshipful Masters who had met certain accomplishments for the 2024 Inspection season. Of which, Scioto Lodge #6 was recognized for two.

W.B. Michael Hines presented the award for having attended all of the 7th Masonic District Lodge Inspections to WM Terrell Fairrow for this inspection season.

Scioto Lodge #6 was also presented an award for having the most of their own lodge members present at their annual inspection in comparison to all other lodges in the 7th Masonic District.

Grand Master's 2025 Roll Out Program

Scioto Lodge #6 hosted lodges from the 7th Masonic District for the 2024-2025 Grand Master's Roll Out Program for Deputy Grand Master William M. Carter on Sunday August 4th.

The District attended the event well.

A one day class will not be offered again this year however a 2-day will take place if the candidate wants to join Blue Lodge and the Scottish Rite Bodies over a single weekend.
